2) Schopenhauer's influence on Nietzsche

Nietzsche was influenced by Arthur Schopenhauer.

Schopenhauer's main idea:

- The world we see is shaped by our intellect (how we think).

- But the real “thing behind everything” is Will.
- This Will is:
  - blind (no logic)
  - instinctive desire
  - never fully satisfied

    So life becomes suffering → that’s why Schopenhauer is called a pessimist.

    Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

How Nietzsche took ideas from him:

- Nietzsche became atheistic (rejects God / cosmic purpose).
- Nietzsche agrees reality is driven by will (as a force).
- Nietzsche gives art a very important place in life. Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

3) Nietzsche: “The Birth of Tragedy”

Nietzsche explains Greek culture using two forces:

Apollonian (Apollo)

- order, form, beauty, clarity
- individual, controlled, understandable

Dionysian (Dionysus)

- emotion, chaos, ecstasy
- music, drunkenness, passion
- group feeling (losing yourself in the crowd)

Main point:

Greek tragedy was born from the mix of both:

- Apollo = structure
- Dionysus = energy and wild feeling Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

4) Good-and-Bad vs Good-and-Evil (Nietzsche’s morality)

Nietzsche says: Morality is human-made, not from God.

He says there are two moralities:

A) Master Morality (Good vs Bad)

- made by strong / nobles / warriors
- “Good” = strong, proud, powerful

- "Bad" = weak, common people

B) Slave Morality (Good vs Evil)

- created by the weak due to resentment
- weak people can't fight physically, so they "take revenge" by creating a new moral system:
- "Evil" = strong masters
- "Good" = humble, obedient, patient, suffering

Easy memory line:
Master morality says: "I am good."
Slave morality says: "You are evil." Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

5) Concept of Guilt (how guilt started)

Nietzsche links guilt to debt.

Old societies idea:

- If someone owes you money and can't pay,
- you punish them,
- and punishment feels like "payment."

So guilt = feeling like you owe something and must suffer.

He says cruelty is part of human nature, and guilt grew from that. Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

6) Priest and guilt (how guilt becomes inside you)

Nietzsche says priests gained power by teaching:

- You don't just owe debt to people…
- You owe debt to gods / society.

So guilt becomes internal (inside your mind).
People start punishing themselves.

Priests also give meaning to suffering:

- They teach: "You suffer because it's your fault."
  And that makes suffering feel "explainable."

Key quote idea (easy):

People hate suffering most when it feels meaningless. Priests give it "meaning."

Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

7) Concept of Overman (Übermensch)

From Thus Spake Zarathustra.

Overman meaning (easy):

- Human is not the final stage.
- Human is a bridge between animal and Overman.

Nietzsche's famous image:

- "Man is a rope between animal and Overman — over an abyss."

Overman is:

- a creator of new values
- says yes to life
- stays true to the earth (no afterlife focus)
- lives strongly and passionately
- but still has self-discipline (not just "do anything") Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

Super-fast "write in exam" mini answers (2–3 lines)

Q: Apollonian vs Dionysian?

Apollonian means order, form, and clarity. Dionysian means ecstasy, instinct, music, and excess. Greek tragedy came from mixing both. Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

Q: Master vs Slave morality?

Master morality is made by strong nobles: good = strong, bad = weak. Slave morality is made by the weak using resentment: good = humble, evil = strong masters.

Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

Q: How did guilt start?

Guilt began as the idea of debt. If someone couldn't repay, punishment became the "payment," so guilt and suffering became linked. Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)

Q: What is Overman?

Overman is a higher human type who creates new values, rejects otherworldly hope, stays true to earth, and affirms life with strength and discipline. Fredrick Nietzsche (1) (1)
